

GISSA Gauteng Online Meeting – using GIS to address Global instabilities

Date: 3 July 2025

Venue: Online Meeting - Teams

Time	Item	Speaker	Company
09:00 - 09:10	Welcome and introduction	Antonie Peens	GISSA Gauteng/ AfriGIS
09:10 – 09:35	Leveraging Spatial Data for Enhanced Decision-making and Risk Management	Pierre du Plessis	FNB
09:35 – 10:00	Using visualisation to unveil the last-mile health supply chains in Africa	Dion de Gruchy	TDG Advisors
10:00 – 10:25	The role of OpenStreetMap in Geospatial Solutions for Market Instability	Geoffrey Kateregga	Humanitarian OpenStreetMap
10:25 – 10:35	Body Break
10:35 – 11:00	Predictive models and conducted analysis - Flooding	Khulukazi Hlalukana	University of Fort Hare
11:00 – 11:25	The spatial thinking ability of individuals in the Geospatial Information industry - Results	Sanet Carrow	UNISA
11:25 – 11:50	TBC – ISO Standards Global Wuhan Feedback	Marna Roos	AfriGIS
11:50 – 12:10	Lunch
12:10 – 12:35	Applying GIS to support global health challenges	Mittah Raditlhalo	Right to Care
12:35 – 13:00	Climate Change - Financial sector resilience through the geospatial lense	Andries Schutte	Riskscape
13:00 – 13:25	Resilience and risk: Supply chain and logistics in South African Agriculture amid global market instability	Dr Walter Shiba	Agricultural Research Council (ARC)
13:25	Closure and networking		